

tripurainfo shines : books remain not only storehouse of knowledge but tower of strength for 'Exam Warriors'

Jayanta Debnath

Books since time immemorial have been perennial sources of knowledge and information but books have also been targets of barbaric invaders to foreign nations. It is a long and agonizing story but what seems relevant in the present context is that even the inventions of computer, internet, plethora of search engines and other online sources of information books have retained their charm. Any one seeking an in-depth understanding of a subject have perforce to read books for authentic knowledge. Among the categories of books, a relatively recent and popular genre is the surfeit of books on general knowledge, current affairs and information about basic history, geography, science and other subjects . Books on such subjects often outsell others in book fairs and markets. The urge and need for jobs through competitive exams is so high and all pervasive now that books that act as guides and helps candidates for competitive exams for jobs achieve instant popularity.

Nothing illustrates the point better than the two latest books published by tripurainfo.com, titled 'TPSC Master Guide 2019-2020' meant for candidates of exams for posts such as LD Typist, SI, TSR constable or any other non-gazetted posts and 'TCS & TPS , Gade-II Exam Guide 2019-2020' which is meant for posts and services mentioned in the title itself. While the twin books have already generated enthusiastic interest among students and candidates for jobs, the actual market response is also highly encouraging. State's eminent journalist and the living spirit behind tripurainfoi.com-state's highest-accessed news portal, Jayanta Debnath has richly contributed to the cause of students and candidates for jobs by authoring the books.

The first edition of 'TPSC Master Guide-2019-2020' is designed for TPSC screening tests exams, Tripura secretariat and high court clerical services. Sets of questions on all possible subjects relevant to these exams have been prepared with answers to help candidates prepare themselves easily. The 'TCS and TPS Grade-II Exam Guide 2019-2020', on the other hand, presents MCQ practice programme-I and MCQ practice programme-II . The questions and answers covered include Tripura-India-World, History and Geography, Cultural Affairs, GK and current events, Indian politics and economy, General Science, Environment, Numerical Ability, Computer (Basic Knowledge), English Composition and Grammar. Knowledge of all these subjects are essential to candidates for the preliminary and main exams of the TCS and TPS Grade-II exams.

Published by Tripurainfo.com, state's highest accessed news portal, these books have already stirred the market as did other books published by the organization earlier. Tripura's leading educationist and principal of the 'School of Science' Abhijit Bhattacharjee has authored an informative 'Foreword' to explain the changes brought about by the TPSC authority in the syllabus for the competitive exams in the sleek 395 and 399 pages volumes.